

Susquehanna Community School District

Right to Know

Please be advised that Right to Know posters are located in the faculty room and main office of each building. These posters define your specific rights in regard to the Right to Know legislation. Should you need any additional information or have any concerns with respect to the Right to Know legislation and/or the Susquehanna Community School District's compliance with this law, please see the Superintendent of Schools.